WELCOME TO APHRODITES ISLAND

FACTS ABOUT CYPRUS

Nicosia in Cyprus is the last divided capital city in the world.

1960 was the first time in the country's long history that it wasn't being governed or ruled by a foreign power.

Although it has independence 3% of the island still belongs to the British.
Cyprus has been ruled by 11 different foreign powers in its history incl: The Assyrians – Egyptians – Persians – Macedonians – Romans – Lusignans – Venetians – Ottomans British

WHY CYPRUS?

The island of Cyprus is rooted in the Mediterranean culture and offers the perfect backdrop to look within and reconnect with the self.
The weather in June is warm and balmy. The summer season is yet to begin; everything is still, calm and quiet. This means we get to enjoy the beaches, nature, charming villages and well known landmarks without the heavy crowds.
We can slow down – soften and embrace the beauty this Mediterranean island has to offer
